

Nordic Track

14 APRIL, ROOM: M1

09:00-09:30 | Registration and Coffee

09:30-10:00 | Resilience And Lifelong Learning In A Changing World

Katarina Pietrzak

10:00-10:45 | AI Leap 2025: How Estonia Is Redefining The Future Of Education

Ivo Visak - CEO At AI Leap Foundation

10:45-11:15 | Coffee Break

11:15-12:00 | Schools In A Changing Society: What Will It Take For Every Student To Succeed In 2045?

Venla Bernelius, University Of Helsinki

12:00-13:00 | Lunch with Reflections from your Perspective

13:00-13:45 | Schools At A Digital Crossroads In A New Europe – Sovereignty, Dependencies And The Future Of Education

Johan Eriksson, Chief Technology Officer At SVT

13:45-14:30 | Facilitated Reflections

14:30-15:00 | Coffee Break

15:00-16:00 | Reflections On How Schools Address Fake News, Disinformation And Digital Sovereignty

The Teacher Unions In The Nordic Countries And Others

Nina Jonsson, Principal At Bobergskolan & Hjorthagens Skola, Stockholm City, And Member Of The Swedish School Leaders' Council Of Professional Ethics

Inger Damlin, Federation Chair, Finnish Swedish Teachers' Association FSL (Principal Basically, She Can Have Both Perspectives In Her Head At The Same Time!)

Thomas Nordgård, Central Board Of The Swedish Education Association