

Nordic Track

14 APRIL, ROOM: M1

09:00-09:30 | Registration and Coffee

09:30-09:40 | Welcome
Katarina Pietrzak

09:40-10:00 | Resilience And Lifelong Learning In A Changing World - What Role Will Schools Play
Katarina Pietrzak, Researcher And Strategist In Lifelong Learning And Systemic Transformation

10:00-10:30 | Beyond Helpfulness: Improving AI For Teaching And Learning
Irina Jurenka, Google Deepmind

10:45-11:15 | Coffee Break

11:15-12:00 | AI Leap 2025: How Estonia Is Redefining The Future Of Education
Ivo Visak, CEO At AI Leap Foundation | Former Principal, Saaremaa Upper Secondary School. Kuressaare, Saaremaa, Estonia

12:00-13:00 | Lunch with Reflections from your Perspective

13:00-13:30 | Schools At A Digital Crossroads In A New Europe – Technology, Sovereignty And The Future Of Education
Johan Eriksson, Chief Technology Officer At SVT

13:30-14:00 | Facilitated Reflections

14:00-14:30 | Coffee Break

14:30-15:15 | Schools In A Changing Society: What Will The Purpose Of Education And Success In It Look Like In 2045?
Venla Bernelius, Senior Specialist At The Finnish Ministry Of Education And Culture And A Docent (Adjunct Professor) Of Urban Geography At The University Of Helsinki

15:15-16:00 | Panel Discussion On The Future Of Education
The Teacher Unions In The Nordic Countries And Others
Jannie Jeppesen, VD At Swedish Edtech Industry
Nina Jonsson, Principal At Bobergskolan & Hjorthagens Skola, Stockholm City, And Member Of The Swedish School Leaders' Council Of Professional Ethics
Inger Damlin, Federation Chair, Finnish Swedish Teachers' Association FSL (Principal Basically, She Can Have Both Perspectives In Her Head At The Same Time!)
Thomas Nordgård, Central Board Of Union Of Education Norway

16:00-16:15 | Closing Remarks
Katarina Pietrzak