The Criteria to Join Mega Move Alliance

To expedite your application, we kindly ask for four references crucial to your submission. These references should originate from overseas agents who have collaborated with your office. Please ensure each reference includes comprehensive contact details—company name, individual's name, direct phone/mobile number, and direct email address—and must represent the following

- Senior Management from Companies Abroad
- With a minimum of two years' experience collaborating with your company
- References must come from non-related agent companies, excluding those with significant cross-shareholdings or within the same corporate group as your company.
- Prior to application submission, please engage in a discussion with us regarding membership costs. Membership fees are contingent upon the number of your company's offices. Additionally, all members are mandated to enroll in the Keystone Financial Protection Program

The Benefits of Joining Mega Move Alliance

Our projects network's growth and evolution extend over a decade, continuously adapting to optimize your investment. We don't stagnate; we innovate, always aiming to better serve your requirements.

Mega Move Alliance maintains a commitment to excellence by thoroughly vetting each member, ensuring that only the most credible and reputable project logistics experts are welcomed into our prestigious network.

The Costs of Joining Mega Move Alliance

Member Application Procedure: www.megamovealliance.com/application/

Accelerate Your Mega Move Alliance Membership Application:

To expedite your enrollment process, we've streamlined the application procedure.

As a prospective member, please furnish four references critical to substantiating your application's credibility. These endorsements should originate from international partners who have collaborated with your company in project logistics endeavors. For comprehensive references, kindly include full contact details such as the company name, contact person's name, direct phone/mobile number, and direct email address. Your references should meet the following criteria:

- Hold senior management positions within their organizations.
- Operate in markets external to your domestic region.
- Possess a minimum of two years of collaborative experience with your entity.
- Represent independent agencies, with no significant shared ownership or affiliations within your corporate group.

Before submitting your application, we recommend initiating a conversation regarding Mega Move Alliance membership fees, which are contingent upon the number of offices your company operates. An obligatory component of membership is enrollment in the Keystone Financial Protection Program, ensuring a secure financial environment for all Mega Move Alliance members. Enhance your project forwarding capabilities by becoming part of a network comprised of top-tier project logistics specialists through Mega Move Alliance.

Keystone Financial Protection Plan

The Keystone Financial Protection Program (KFPP) exists to provide compensation for funds lost due to non-payment of invoices for handling transactions between the Keystone Financial Protection Program scheme participants. KFPP is not cargo insurance or any other related insurance and is not meant to replace such instruments.

The KFPP is in place with the three aims:

- Dealing with disingenuous partners,
- Protecting third-party member companies from poor and irresponsible business practices of their partners
- And protecting the Member Network from liability related to member-to-member transactions.

Financial Protection Plan	Head Office Only	Head Office & One Branch (lump sum)	Group rate
USD 20,000	USD 450.00	USD 750.00	USD 900.00
USD 30,000	USD 600.00	USD 1000.00	USD 1200.00
