the day.

We have selected roses whose properties have always been the object of mankind's desire. It is a them together in a single formula and obtain an impossible elixir.

Ingredients

We have selected roses whose properties have always been the object of mankind's desire. It is a journey through the history of perfumes to bring them together in a single formula and obtain an impossible elixir.

The Black Baccara rose, created by Welsh experts, is a flower of powerful lasting passion. Its velvety black petals provide protection and softness. From the Arctic cold, the Polar Rose instantly relaxes the skin. The Damask Rose from the city of Damascus refreshes and protects thanks to its phenolic compounds. From the deserts of the Middle East, the Rose of Jericho, a miracle of nature, moisturises the epidermis deeply and immediately. The Centifolia Rose from Morocco, meanwhile, tones and repairs any imperfection. From Turkey to the Caucasus comes the Gallica Rose with its natural AHA peeling. From the high Andes we have the Canina Rose and the Mosqueta Rose: one prevents blemishes and inflammations, the other regenerates and brings shine and silkiness.

Ingredients

GOLD
(conductor)

An intense connection is created between the electrons of gold and the natural ions of the skin, thus creating direct bridges of penetration of the other active ingredients through the pores.
